Chief Engineer E. G. Tilton of the Salt Lake Route, accompanied by Carl Stradley, locating engineer of the Or-egon Short Line, left Wednesday for Lund on the Salt Lake Route where tund on the Salt Lake Route where they will begin a systematic survey over the proposed new line of the Salt Lake Route to Moapa, by way of Cedar City and St. George. At the same time Arthur Maguire, locating engineer of the Salt Lake Route, left for Crestline, Nev., where he will commence a survey of the proposed Ploche route.

It is expected that three weeks or more may be occupied in making the St. George survey, as it will be a most thorough one, and the most feasible route will be selected. A line with hot more than, a two per cent grade is desired. The fact that the chief engineer of the road, together with an assistant locating engineer, is making the survey between Lund and St. George is taken to indicate that this route has the preference over any other.

"As between a mining and an agri-

George is taken to indicate that this route has the preference over any other.

"As between a mining and an agricultural district for the building of a railroad," said a prominent ratiroad man this morning, "railroads always give the agricultural section preference, from the reason that mines are always pinching out and the shipments are uncertain; but in an agricultural district, conditions are just the reverse, and the products are always increasing. This consideration will doubtless operate strongly in favor of St. George in the selection of the new route for the Salt Lake road."

WRIGHT ROBBED BY POLITE HIGHWAYMAN

Watch Secured by Affable

A hold up who is described as "a gentleman," robbed Edward Wright of $2 in cash and a watch valued at $25 Wednesday night on Third east and Fourth South streets.

Fourth South streets.

Wright was on his way to his home at 440 south Third East street when he was stopped by a well dressed young man who asked for a match When Wright reached for a match the young man shoved a gun into Wright's face and ordered him to throw up his hands. Wright compiled with the order and then the robber told his victim to hand over all his valuables.

"You may now take down your hands and help me to whatever you have in the way of cash or articles of value. If you happen to have a gun on you I am sure you will not be foolish enough to use it, becase if you attempt anything of that sort it will be my painful duty to plug you." Wright told the police that the holdup man was a typical Kaffies, because he was so polite.

GREAT EVENT FOR SALT LAKE.

Seven Year Cycle Holds Magic Sway Over Something Big.

Many great events occur in cyclessome in seven-year cycles. The man-agement of the Press club north pole agement of the Press club north pole show regard it a very fortunate omen that a cyclean recurrence is scheduled to take place when the all-star aggregation presents for the delectation of a temperate zone audience the real story of the discovery of the north pole. This is nothing less than the reappearance in Salt Lake City of the famous Temple City quartet, comprising Bowman Johnson, Walter Bielle, Jack Farrell and Bill Parr, which made a hit upon the occasion of the first ham-show ever given by the Press club, seven years ago.

are the rehearsals now being prosecuted daily and nightly in anticipation of the big event. The actors and actorines are astonishing the prompter with the versatility of dramatic talent displayed, and promise to astonish to a still greater extent the public on the evening of Feb. 9, when the great show will be pulled off.

TELLS OF RESCUE WORK

Brigadier Stillwell of the Salvation

Brig.-Gen. Mary Stillwell of the Salvation Army lectured to a large audi-ence of women Wednesday afternoon in the First Methodist church on the white slave traffic. The facts in the case were pertinently and pungently stated. Mrs. Stillwell stated that there are in the United States under the jurisdiction of the Salvation Army, 115 rescue homes for girls. Since the organization of these, 5,862 rescue cases have been handled, of which 82 percent have been pernanent. Mrs. Stillwell told of many cases she knew where young girls had been rescued, and explained the methods used by the army. She appealed to the mothers to assist in the work, not by going into the slums with the Army workers, but by stopping the girls from starting on the way to ruin. A feature of the work carried on by the army, is placing girls in different business places, where they can earn their own living. The army not only rescues the girls from lives of shame but assists them to lead honest lives. the First Methodist church on the

DYNAMITERS TO HAVE A STRENUOUS FIGHT

County Presses Its Case Against Wil-Much Vigor,

The trial of Frank Wilson and John Delaney, legally charged with malicious miscchief but generally with the attempted dynamiting of the foundations of the Hotel Utah on Dec. 29 last, came up before Judge Bowman in the police ure of business the case was not called until shortly before noon, and then, after one almost immaterial witness had been examined, the case went over until 10 o'clock Friday.

The state evidently realizes the importance of the case and in connection with County Attorney Alexander, there is associated Attorneys Diehl and Little. The county attorney made a strong presentation of the case and incidentally notified the court that in all probability it would require three days to finish the trial. Wilson made a vigorous plea for a continuance, saying that he did not have two material witnesses, but the county attorney said that he would subpoena the men and they would be obtained, if possible, before their presence was necessary.

would be obtained, if possible, before their presence was necessary.

Delaney, who has afforded much information to the police in regard to the dynamiting, got on his fighting clothes, brushed back a mop of auburn hair, informed the court that a brother of his was an attorney, and asked to be allowed to act for himself. Qudge Bowman granted the request and Delaney settled back in his chair with a satisfied smile. Wilson proved defiant and sought in every way to embarrass the court procedure. The bench was finally compelled to quash him and then he became good.

competed to quash him and then he became good.

There is a tremendous array of witnesses, mostly for the prosecution. The actions of both Wilson and Delaney have been searched as with an X-ray both by the police department and by detectives employed by the Jones Construction company, which, it is alloged, they sought to injure. It is patent from the introduction given the case by the county attorney that there is to be some startling testimony and that the specific charge of misdemeanor is to be followed, in all likelihood, by one of much more portent.

HIGHWAYMEN ROB CAR IN WATERLOO

Pair Boards Car 356 at Early Morning Hour, Securing Fare Money and Conductor's Watch.

Conductor John Tuntle of Waterloo car No. 356 reported to the police early this morning that he had been robbed by two men of $15.50 belonging to the company and also a watch and $2, per-sonal property. He said the hold-up occurred at Eleventh South and Fourti East streets, shortly before 2 o'clock.

According to the story of Tuntle, the highwaymen stopped the car as it was returning to town, and as soon as they got aboard one of the men shoved a revolver in his face and ordered him to throw up his hands. Tustle obeyed, he said, and one of the men cut his money belt and then took the watch and $2 in small change. After securing and $2 in small change. After securing the money the robbers signaled the motorman to stop the car and they fled in the darkness.

WIFE DANCED AND HUBBY CLEANED UP

Charles Hollberg on the Witness Stand at Today's Hearing.

BORROWED FROM NEIGHBORS

When Articles Were Returned The Were Not Clean and a Quarrel Ensued.

Charles A. Hollberg, whose Louie Hollberg, is suing him for a divorce, took the witness stand in Judge Morse's court this morning in support of his counterclaim for a di-vorce and related at some extent the conduct of his wife, Mrs. Hollberg was fond of dancing, he said, and she went out on an average of twice a week leaving him at home with the children. She was a poor housekeeper, Hollberg said, and asserted that when the house was cleaned he did it himself. On one occasion, he said, he showed her the condition of the bread box. It was half filled with mildew, and filthy. When he told her it ought to be cleaned out, he says she emptled it at him, one loaf at a time. Mrs. Hollberg also had a habit of borrowing things from the neighbors. She borrowed a saucepan from Mrs. E. C. Everett, a neighbor, and when she returned it, they had a quarrel because it had not been cleaned. Hollberg attempted to act as peacemaker, but his wife swore at him and left the house taking their two children with her.

her.

When Hollberg found that she had left the children with Mrs, Child, her sister, he went there and took them away to his mother's home. The next day both Hollberg and his wife retained attorneys to bring an action of divorce against the other. Mrs. Hollberg's attorney filed his suit first and then Hollberg followed with an answer and counterclaim. DECREE BY STIPULATION.

Gets Children-To Sell Hotel.

Frank Reagan Gets Divorce—Wife Gets Children—To Sell Hotel.

By stipulation, Frank Reagan was granted the decree of divorce, Mrs. Katherine Reagan awarded the custody of the three children, the Reagan hotel at Garfield ordered sold and the proceeds divided equally between them. The sensational divorce suit was disposed of Wednesday by Judge George G. Armstrong wthout a contest and all the charges in the complaint, answer, counter-claim and reply were withdrawn. Reagan was awarded the decree on the ground that his wife attempted to shoot him on Oct 27 last when leaving the office of his attorney in the Boston building. The agreement was made by the parties through their attorneys and the stipulations were filed in court.

Mrs. Edith Coult, whose husband, Joseph Coult, drove her off of his farm, compelling her to become a county charge, was given a decree of divorce Wednesday by Judge Armstrong on the grounds of non-support. She was awarded the custody of their two children. They were married in Sandy on July 23, 1906.

Elizabeth Smith declares in a complaint for divorce filed Wednesday in the Third district court that her husband, Thomas Smith, is a poor provider. She asks for a divorce, to be restored to her maiden name, Elizabeth Brown, and that she be awarded $25 a month allmony and $50 attorney's fees. They were married in Salt Lake on Nov. 21, 1906.

TWO DISAPPOINTING MARRIAGES

Edith Schank seeks a divorce from Charles C. Schank in a complaint filed this morning in the Third district court in which she charges him with non-support. They were married here on Oct. 1, 1901, and have no children. She asks for suitable allmony.

Peter Goetz declares that his wife deserted him in a complaint for divorce filed against Mrs. Anna R. Goetz this morning in the Third district court. They were married here on June 14, 1906, and have no children.

WERE HAPPY FIVE MONTHS.

WERE HAPPY FIVE MONTHS.

Mrs. Berline K Wallis, 63 years old, was granted a divorce from William H. Wallis, 53 years old, by Judge George G. Armstrong, this morning. In her complaint she charged him with neglect, and took the witness stand to support the allegation. They were married here on Oct. 3, 1906, and lived together five months before they separated. Mrs. Wallis earned her own living for a while. Then they were reconciled again and lived together for a year before they separated the second time.

SAYS THERE WAS NO ELOPEMENT Allan McDonald, whose wife, Mrs. atherine McDonald, is suing him for Catherine McDonald, is suing him for a divorce, filed an answer to her complaint in which he accounts for $1,265 of the money which he obtained from selling the lease of the Hampton rooming house which she was conducting. He admits that $940 of it is in the hands of Arthur H. Parsons, who is also made the defendant in the suit and against whom she has a restraining order. He also says that he has invested $435 of the money in some land and this she also has tied up. He denies, however, that he eloped with another woman and spent the remainder of the money buying her presents.

KOWOTOICH ARRAIGNED.

John Kowotoich, charged with as-sault with a deadly weapon with in-tent to kill, was arraigned in Judge Lewis's court this morning. He entered a plea of not guilty to the informa-tion which alleges that on Dec. 6, 1903, that he stabbed Tom Mascoline with a knife at Garfield.

"WHEAT CASE" DECIDED.

"WHEAT CASE" DECIDED.

F. A. Neuberger, a farmer of Logan, did not fulfill all the conditions of his contract with David Robbins & Co., of Salt Lake, when he contracted to sell his wheat at a certain price when it was still standing on the ground and then refused to sell part of it when the price began to raise, according to an opinion handed down Wednesday by the supreme court. On account of some findings of Judge W. W. Maughn of the First district court which the supreme court holds to be contrary to the evidence, the case was remanded for a new trial. It was decided in the opinion that even though the evidence as given in the trial court may tend to show that the conduct of David Robbins & Co. waived compliance upon the part of Neuberger with the conditions of the contract, inasmuch as the waiver was not pleaded and made an issue in the lower court, advantage of it would not be taken later in the supreme court. The opinion was written by Justice W. M. McCarty and concurred in by his associates.

COMPROMISE AGREED UPON.

Mrs. Christine Sorenson and Mrs. Mary Allen reached a compromise Wednesday in Judge T. D. Lewis's court in a suit brought by Mrs. Soren-on for the restitution of real estate. Sait Lake county. The land was light to Mrs. Mary Allen for $2,000 to paid in monthly instalments of $20 ch. She defaulted under the context and a settlement was reached hereby Mrs. Sorenson agrees to pay rs. Allen $150 and the latter will cate by March 1.

CALL OF STATE CASES

CALL OF STATE CASES.

Lloyd Jevne, a local billiard expert, appeared before Judge J. M. Bowman in the criminal division of the city court this morning on the charge of contributing to the delinquincy of his son, William B. Jevne, aged 16 years, by permitting the youth to play billiards and pool in the Jevne academy. The case was set for Feb. 14 and Mr. Jevne was released on his own recognizance.

The case was set for Feb. 14 and Mr. Jevne was released on his own recognizance.

Nick Tedesco, charged with permitting minors to remain in his salcon, entered a plea of not guilty and he will be given a trial on Feb. 15.

Frank Williams, colored, charged with burglary in the second degree, will have to stand trial in the district court as he was ordered bound over to the higher tribunal by Judge Bowman this morning. Williams, and a man named Savoy, were arrested for breaking into the Paris cleaning establishment on the night of Dec. 4, and stealing several articles of wearing apparel. Savoy pleaded guilty and is now doing a term in the state prison. Williams told a conflicting story and Judge Bowman held that the prosecution had made out a case of probable cause and ordered Williams held to the district court.

SHERIFF WINS ON APPEAL

Judgment was sustained in an opinion handed down by the supreme court this afternoon in the case of John H. Arnold, appellant, against Richard Pope, sheriff of Ulntah county, respondent, on appeal from the Fourth district court, Judge John E. Booth, presiding. Asenath Chadwick had obtained judgment against Arnold and E. C. Emert for $221.50. It being in force, an execution was placed with Sheriff Pope. Arnold had obtained judgment against Mrs. Chadwick for $363.67. Mrs. Chadwick was insolvent and upon a claim of an offset, Arnold began an action seeking to restrain the sheriff from collecting the judgment in Mrs. Chadwick's favor. Sheriff Pope filed a demurrer, alleging that facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action were not set out. The court sustained the demurrer and the action was dismissed. On appeal by Arnold, judgment is today sustained. Judgment was sustained in an opin on handed down by the supreme cour

BRASS BAND TO MEET THE BIG BOILERMAKER

For Saturday When Jim Jeffries Arrives in Town.

James J. Jeffries, champion pugllist of the world, together with Frank Gotch of Iowa, who holds the same undisputed title as wrestler, and Sam Berger, manager, with a dozen or so others who are more or less distinguished in the sporting world, will arrive in Salt Lake some time Saturday morning. They will be met at the sta tion by Tex Rickard, a brass band, who are planning to give the big boilermaker a great reception. The arrival of Jeffries in Salt Lake will undoubtedly settle the much-mooted question, as to the location of the championship contest which is to take place between the Californian and the big negro from Texas on the next Independence day. the fact that Jack Johnson is supposed to go into the ring with Jeffries, still it the fact that Jack Johnson is supposed to go into the ring with Jeffries, still it remains a fact that Jeffries is the dictator. He is the central figure and his dictum will be final.

Tex Rickard maintains his stand that the big fight will take place in Salt Lake and already preparations are being made at the Saltair track for the event Rickard denies a telegraphic story to the effect that he asked the stakeholder whether or not he had the privilege of naming the place of combat. The Nevada man persists that it is up to him and that he alone has any say in regard to where the fight is to take place. Rickard is becoming very much incensed over the imbroglic and threatens if there is a continuance, to make the big fellows go out on the sand hills and fight or forfelt the $20,000 guarantee. Tex Rickard is a man who has lost a number of fortunes and the length to which he might go is problematical, if he is antagonized too strongly, problematical, if he is antagonized too strongly.

At the Wilson hotel this afternoon there was a meeting of about 50 followers of the ring who perfected plans to meet Jeffries at the train Saturday morning with a band and a general concourse of all the sporting fraternity of the city. After the big fellow and his troupe arrives they will be taken to the Wilson where a public reception will be held. At the head of the movewill be held. At the head of the move-ment is E. N. Atherton, an old time athlete and champion sculler of New England who is now a resident of Salt Lake. The affair is not to be given too much publicity for the reason that Jeffries is well known to be averse to any public demonstrations.

J. H. Ericksen of Richfield, for some10 years district attorney of Sevier county, registered at the Wilson, reports that the little town of Sigurd, 10 miles north of Richfield, is the scene of considerable activity. This is the location of the Jumbo plaster and cement mill, where a new tramway and a railroad spur of one and a half miles are being constructed, to connect with the main line and to do away with the main line and to the mill. These improvements necessitate the expenditure of $25,000. It is expected to have both the tramway and the spur completed and in operation by Feb. 1. The capacity of the Jumbo mill is 100 tons of plaster a day. Near by is the Utah Keen's Cement company which turns out daily about 40 tons of high grade cement, used in the fine arts. Mr.
Ericksen says the gypsum deposits near Sigurd are really wonderful in both richness and in extent. Dikes 25 to 50 feet in width almost pure gypsum, may be traced for five miles in length. The Jumbo company has taken up 28 quarter sections covering the best of this ground. The new improvements at the plant will greatly facilitate operations.
